

A Time to

REMEMBER

What it means to be an ELBA TIGER

Running out of the lockerroom through the Tiger Walk into the Friday night lights.

Coming home with all ones and multiple trophies from a band competition.

When your head starts bobbing when you hear "Eye of the Tiger."

Wrapping your arms around your friends
to sing the Alma Mater.

Spiking, dunking, shooting and running
on the court.

Putting your best effort forward in the classroom.

SENIORS

Senior year is unlike any other. Here are a few things you should know. It won't hit you when you wake up for your last first day of school. It won't hit you when you walk into the locker room as an official Senior. It won't hit you when you cheer at your last homecoming pep rally and attend your last football game. It won't hit you as you go to your last homecoming dance and realize Prom is way better without the lower classmen and the DJ. It won't hit you when you enter the floor to perform for state for the last time. It won't hit you as you fill out the countless college applications. It won't hit you as you write that generic essay letter that you try to use for all your applications. It won't hit as your college friends return for Christmas break and give you all their advice. It won't hit you as you celebrate New Years with the friends you have known since childhood. It won't hit you as you cheer at your last Senior night, and you cry your eyes out. You won't feel it when you're having the time of your life at your last spring break. You don't realize it at senior skip day when everyone no matter what group you're in has a picnic. When May finally comes around and you realize it is your last prom and you don't really feel it when you're having the time of your life. You begin to realize it at graduation, when you look around and realize that you will never see half these people again. You will begin to see it more over the summer, when everyone is getting their roommates, class schedules, and going to orientation. It still hasn't fully hit you when you're sitting in your room packing up the last 18 years of your life, laughing with your bestfriend about all the stupid stuff you've done. You might feel it in the morning when you leave for college, as that is the last time you'll see your room, your parents, and your bestfriend for like 3 months. It will finally hit when you are sitting in your new room with a perfect stranger, that you have to live with for the next year. Please, please, PLEASE, make every moment of your Senior year count, you only get to do it once, college will be a lot of fun, but in the time, jump at every opportunity you get to do anything you have ever wanted to do. Spend as much time with your friends as possible, for it will not be long til you meet new people and inevitably grow apart.

A tiger is the central focus of the image, positioned in a forest setting. The tiger's body is angled towards the left, but its head is turned to look directly at the viewer. Its fur is a mix of orange, black, and white, with distinct dark stripes. The tiger's front paws are extended forward, and its hind legs are also visible. The background is a dense forest of thin, light-colored trees, possibly birches, with some dry leaves on the ground. The overall lighting is soft and natural, suggesting a daytime scene in a wooded area.

Congratulations to the Class of 2013

Grad ADS
and
Business ADS

The yearbook staff would like to thank our sponsors, local businesses, and the families of seniors for purchasing advertisement space in the 2013 Elbala. Without your support, we would not have been able to produce this book!

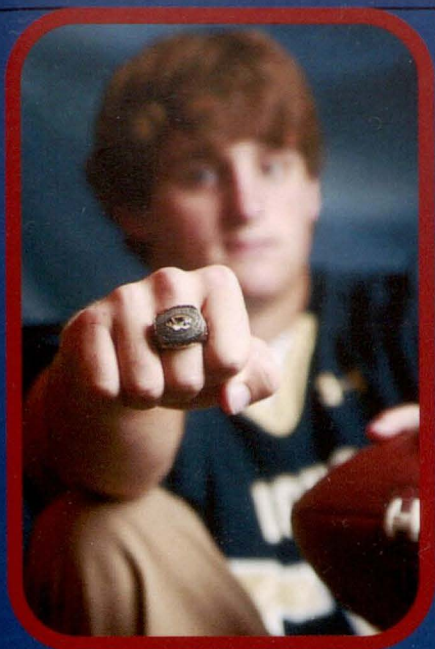

This is your time to fly Brinley! Take it all in, raise your arms when the wind blows without care who watches and hold fast to the spirit that gives you life. Your life is an open book. . . . write the pages with passion and always be faithful to your dream!!

We are so proud of the young lady you have become!
Mom, Dad and Jordan

JonAshley Amison

JonAshley,

Where do we even begin. . It seems like just yesterday that we brought our precious baby boy home from the hospital and now you are preparing for your high school graduation. What a blessing it has been for us to watch you develop into the Christian young man that you are today. We pray that you will always hold true to those Christian values. Set your goals high and never stop until you achieve them.

As the time quickly approaches for you to turn that tassel and begin the next chapter in your life, we can't wait to see what the Lord has planned for you. We love you to the moon and back and could not be more proud of and for you.

Humble yourself before the Lord and
He will raise you up in due time!

In closing, to you and all of the Elba High School Class of 2013. . .

I Hope You Dance!!!

We love you "Big Dawg".
Mommy & Daddy

Congratulations Alex!

*You made it! I'm so proud of you!
What a journey it has been.
Now, a new journey is beginning
and I know you will do Great things!*

I Love You So Very Much!

Mom

"Alex"

Harley Sasser

Harley,
Where has the time gone? You have grown into a beautiful young lady, that we are so proud of. Remember to take one day at a time and live life to the fullest.

We love you baby girl,
Mama, Daddy, Cody and Nanny

*This is the day the Lord Hath made,
rejoice and be glad
in it.*

~Psalms 118:24

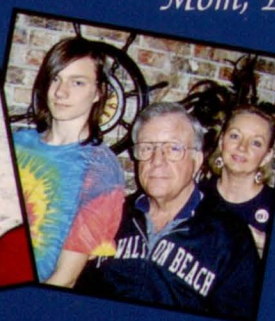

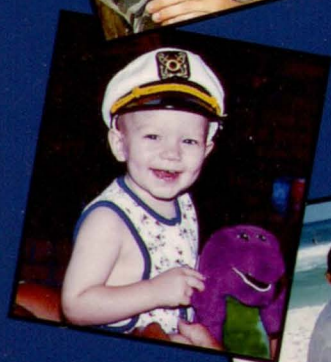

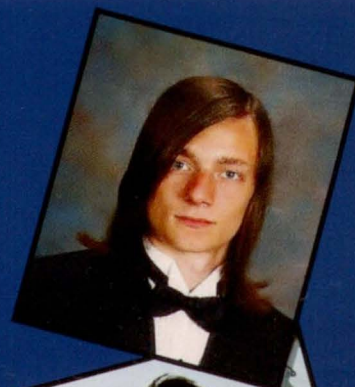

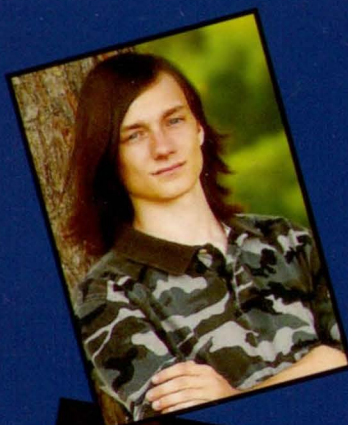

Richard James Warren

Ricky,

*It's been a long road, but you finally made it!
Congratulations! You have grown into a handsome young man with a good heart. We are so very proud of you and wish for you a bright future. Always keep God with you, and he will take care of you.
We love you so much and are so blessed to have you
in our lives!*

Love you always!

Mom, Dad, and Grandma

Ashley Eleanor Foster

*Ashley,
We've made it at last. I am so proud of you!
The whole family is. Always do your best wherever you go in life.*

*I love you and will miss you dearly,
Mama*

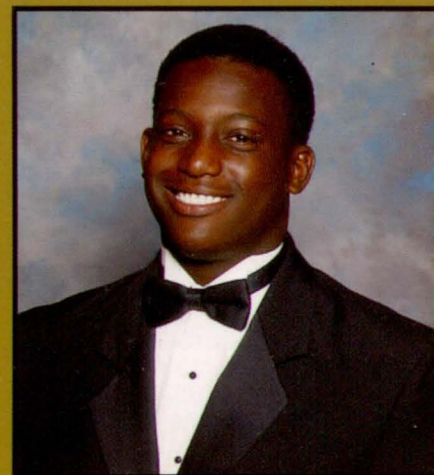

Hayden Disotell

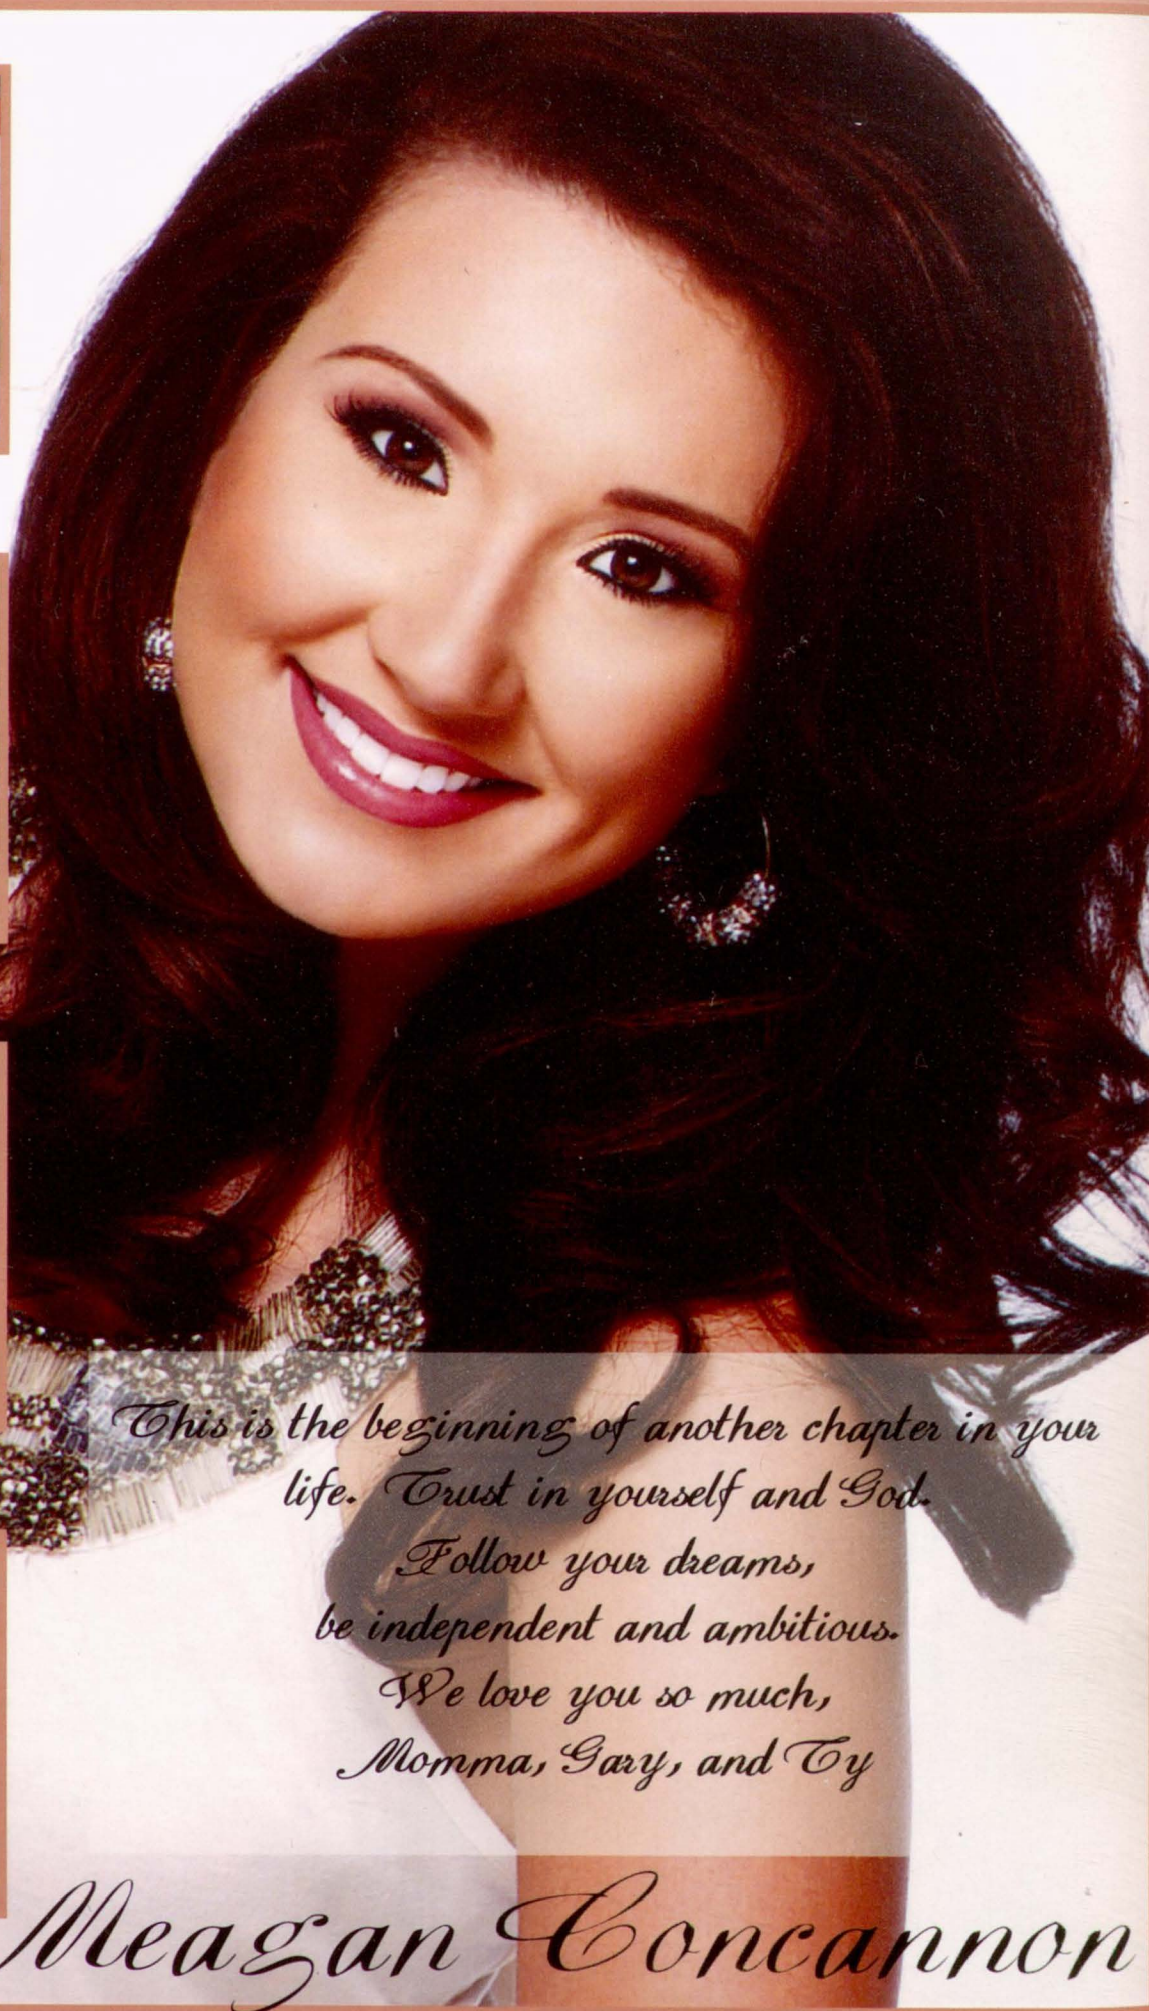

Congratulations, Hayden! I know I will not be able to stop the tears from falling as I watch you march across that stage. I want you to know that I am so proud of the young man you have become. We thank God for you each day and we pray for your joy, good health, and to always keep a kind heart. Always stay grounded, and fight for what you believe in. Be true to yourself and all that you stand for!

Love,
Your Mom, Randy, Creed,
Pawpaw Joe, and Nanny Jeanette

Khaleb Hammonds

Be strong and of good
courage, and do it;
Do not fear or be dismayed,
for the Lord God - my God
will be with you.
- 1 Chronicles 28:20

This is the beginning of another chapter in your life. Trust in yourself and God.

*Follow your dreams,
be independent and ambitious.*

*We love you so much,
Momma, Gary, and Ty*

Miss Elba 2012

Austin Johnson

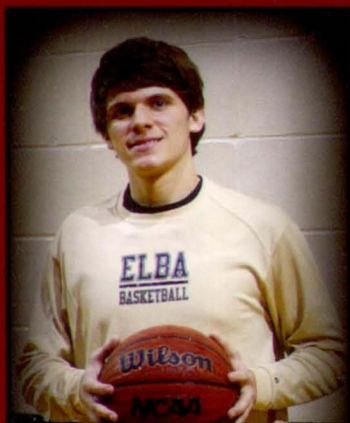

Austin,

I remember the first day of Kindergarten when you were put on the wrong school bus that afternoon. I panicked and just about lost my mind fearful of where you were and what you might be going through. But when I got to the school, there you were sitting with Mr. Nate, chatting away and making a new friend. At that moment I knew you were a very special child. While I was falling apart, you were holding it together. You have always had an incredible confidence about you and an ability to build confidence in others as well. That ability is one of the characteristics that make you a true leader. We are so proud of the man you have become. God has special plans for you! Continue to work hard, follow His plan, keep Him close to your heart and all of your dreams will come true. Remember a good leader inspires people to have confidence in the leader, a GREAT leader inspires people to have confidence in themselves. And most importantly. . . Always believe in yourself!

Philippians 4:13

We Love You,
Mom, Dad, Chance and Brady

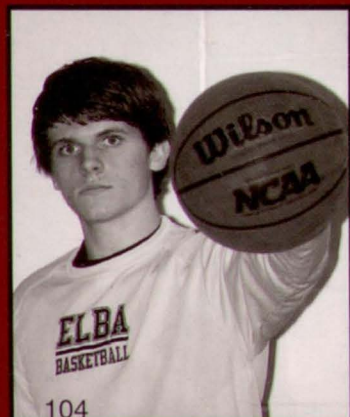

Stonewall Smith

We are very proud of you son. To the best of our knowledge you will be the first one in our family to officially graduate from high school. We are very proud of your ethics and morals. You not only read God's word, but you live it and we are very proud of that! We are blessed to have a son that helps the family as you do.

We Love you!
We are so very proud of you!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Teamwork Makes it Possible

Coming together is a beginning.
Keeping together is progress.
Working together is success.
-Henry Ford

A Time To Remember

Take the time to remember

The joys of friendships

The laughter

The smiles

The good

The bad

The times that you've had

The dances

The games

The celebrations

The names

This yearbook was created for all to hold and cherish the times we have had together.
